

Entry Form

All Cookie Categories

Important Notes:

- The entrant's identification number will be assigned upon arrival at the show.
- This entry form must be completed in its entirety and be signed by the entrant in order for the entry to be judged. Missing information is grounds for disqualification.
- Please fill out the "Registration Information" (Questions 1 through 8) directly on this form. Registration information will not be viewed by the judges, but is needed by show organizers to track and catalog your entry.
- Answers to all remaining questions and any supplemental materials (aka "Judging Information") must be attached to this form with your entry number clearly marked on each page. Absolutely no other identifying information (i.e., your name, business name, email, etc.) should be on these attachments, as they will be viewed by judges.
- Only entrants in the 3-D Cookie Category need to answer Question 11.

Best of luck, and thanks for entering!

Judging Information

Again, attach all remaining questions/information to this form with your entry number clearly marked on each page. Absolutely no other identifying information (i.e., your name, business name, email, etc.) should be on these attachments.

9. Please describe your interpretation of the category’s theme (Fall at the Shore) in 200 words or less.

10. Please describe all decorating techniques used, taking care to highlight brand names of any materials that judges might construe as inedible. Again, your entry cannot contain inedible materials, including those labeled “non-toxic” or “for display use only”, so it is important for judges to know the brand names of any “questionable” materials you may have used.

11. For 3-D Cookie Category only: Please describe all construction techniques used, taking care to highlight the use of any internal supports. Again, internal supports are discouraged, but allowed if they are clearly visible to judges (without looking at any work-in-process photos) and can easily be removed from the cookie(s) if they were to be eaten (i.e., such as cookie pops). Please also clearly identify all 12 (or more) cookies that make up your entry.

12. Supplemental Materials:

- A minimum of three work-in-process photos, demonstrating how you got from bare cookies to your finished entry.
- As relevant: Written permissions received to copy another person’s or company’s material for use in this entry. Again, your entry cannot contain copies or close facsimiles of others’ copyrighted designs, art, logos, or other material unless written permission was received from the copyright holder to copy/use said work in this competition AND that written permission is included here. Remember: Originality is rewarded in this competition!

By signing this entry form, I certify that this entry is my original work, all materials I have submitted in relation to it are accurate and truthful to the best of my knowledge, and I have read all of the requirements of this competition and agree to abide by them.
